Linda Pelling Photography

... congratulations

Your big day approaches, and with it all the organisation and planning that goes into making that day a very special one; a day you'll want to remember always.

The best way to remember the day is with a set of stunning photographs to reflect the joy and happiness of your day.

At Linda Pelling Photography we recognise this, and we can provide you with a collection of images that will recall those emotions always.

It's said, every picture tells a story...

Your wedding is one of the most important moments of your life, and remembering that 'moment in time' brings back all those wonderful memories.

Choosing the right photographer to capture those moments is as important as any other part of your planning. Look around and consider the style that suits you best.

The choice is yours...

Our wedding packages include attendance at the brides home on the morning of your special day, attendance at the wedding or civil ceremony, and attendance at the reception up to the time you and your guests begin your Wedding Breakfast.

Portfolio 1 includes all the images from the day on DVD in JPG format for you to print, upload to the web or even create your own album.

Portfolio 2 includes a beautiful album of selected pictures of the day and a DVD showcase of the best pictures set to music.

We offer a range of additional options for memories of your special day, such as Parent and Guest books, prints of your favourite photographs, and canvas pictures. Parent and Guest books are ordered at the same time as the Wedding Album, while prints and canvas pictures can be ordered any time in the future.

Boudoir Brides

£95

An increasingly popular request is for brides-to-be to have some boudoir photographs taken for their husband-to-be as an extra-special gift for their wedding day.

As a lady photographer, Linda knows how to get the best images from a strictly private session where only yourself and Linda will be present, and which will generally last around two hours.

Call Linda for to arrange a meeting in strict confidence to discuss exactly what you want from the session, whether you've booked your wedding with us or not.

Our Boudoir Brides package includes;

- ~ DVD of all the best pictures set to music
- ~ Four 10" x 8" prints of your choice.

Wedding Portfolio

£500

- ~ Pre-wedding sitting, arranged anytime after you book your wedding, for additional photographs in relaxed pose
- ~ Bridal visit on the morning of the wedding
- ~ Attendance at the church and reception
- ~ Attendance at your evening reception up to your First Dance
- ~ All the pictures from the day (usually around 500) in high resolution JPG format on DVD
